All you need to know about Personal Income Tax !

This brochure is intended to give a brief overview of the treatment of Income for personal Income Tax.

What is Income Tax?

Income Tax - is a tax levied on the income of people, corporations, or other legal entities.

Who is required to pay Income Tax?

Corporations, trustees, sole traders, partners within partnerships and all employees who earns in excess of $3,000. monthly or $36,000 per annum.

What is employment Income?

Section 31 of the Income Tax Act of 1994, states that employment Income of any person for any year of assessment shall include:

- Any amount accrued by way of wages, salary, leave pay, fee (including director's fee), commission, bonus or gratuity etc in respect of employment in Grenada.
- Any travelling, entertainment or other allowance to the extent to which it does not represent a repayment to the employee of moneys wholly, exclusively and necessarily expended by him in the performance of the duties of their employment.
- The rental value of any quarters or residence provided by reason of the employment.
- The value of any other benefit or advantage received or enjoyed by the employee by reason of the employment.
- Any pension payable to a former employee or the dependent of a former employee by the trustees of a pension fund in respect of the employment.

Any loan or advances by a controlled company to a shareholder deemed to be employment income.

What are the rates of Income Tax?

- There are two rates for calculation of Income Tax
- The first $36,000. per annum is exempt
- $36,001 up to $60,000. at the rate of 15%
- In excess of $60,000. at the rate of 30%

Every person who is resident in Grenada is entitled to a deduction of $36,000. from his/her assessable Income.

Example 1:

An employee receives the following gross income per annum:

Salary	$ 40,000.00
Housing allowance	$ 18,000.00
Entertainment allowance	$ 9,000.00
Total:	$ 67,000.00

The following Income tax deductions are made from his/her salary :

Total income from above	$ 67,000.00
Exempt amount	$ 36,000.00
Excess	$ 31,000.00
Therefore $24,000.x15%	$ 3,600.00
Therefore $7000. x 30% =	$ 2,100.00
Total Income Tax Due	$ 5,700.00

NB The income from all the sources have to be reported.

Example 2:

Employee salary	$ 40,000.
Benefits	27,000.
Profit from business	10,000.
Salaries from other employment	20,000
Total	$ 92,000.00
Less exempt Income	36,000.00
Total taxable Income	56,000.00

Tax payable at 15%	3,600.00
Tax payable at 30%	9,600.00
Total tax payable	13,200.

Example 3:

Employment income	48,000.00
Exempt amount	36,000.00
Total taxable income	12,000.00
Tax payable at 15%	$1,800.00

Returns

Every employee who earns in excess of $36,000 per annum are required to submit an Annual Income Tax return within ninety days after the end of the accounting period (fiscal year). Any amount due should be paid when submitting the return.

NB—Every employer who pays remuneration to his employees, shall deduct tax there from in accordance with the manner specified in the Fourth Schedule of the Income Tax Act and shall carry out such other obligations as imposed by that Schedule.

When is the Tax Due?

The Tax is due and payable within ninety (90) days after the end of your financial year, but deducted monthly by the employer in the case of an employee and paid within seven (7) days after the end of the month during which the tax was deducted.

Where can I pay?

The tax can be paid to Inland Revenue Division, or any District Revenue Office. Cheque (s) should be written to the Government of Grenada. Payments can also be made online, by login www.eservices.gov.gd
